Amend section one of the Dublin Parliamentary Revising Act, 1853. A.D. 1911.

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- 5      1.—(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section one of the Dublin Parliamentary Revising Act, 1853, under which the Dublin Revising Barristers are required to attend together at the same place and hold separate courts at the same time for the despatch of business, either of those barristers, or any person
10 appointed to assist them under the Revising Barristers (Ireland) Act, 1886, may attend alone and hold a separate court for the despatch of business at such place or places in the parliamentary borough of Dublin and at such time or times within the period limited for the revision as may from time to time be appointed 15 by the Dublin Revising Barristers or (in the event of their disagreement) by the Recorder of Dublin.
- (2) The time and place (if any) appointed under this section for the holding of a separate court shall be specified in the notice given by the said barristers to the clerk of the peace
20 pursuant to section forty-seven of the Representation of the People (Ireland) Act, 1850. Amendment of 16 & 17 Vict. c. 58. s. 1.
49 & 50 Vict. c. 43.
13 & 14 Vict. c. 69.
- (3) If any difference arises between the said barristers as to the expediency of appointing a time and place for the holding of a separate court under this section, the matter shall be 25 referred to the Recorder of Dublin for his determination; and the Recorder may, if he thinks fit, appoint a time and place for the holding of such separate court accordingly.
- [Bill 250.]

A.D. 1911. (4) The expression "Dublin Revising Barrister" in this — section includes any deputy appointed to discharge the duty of 20 & 21 Viet. a Dublin Revising Barrister under the Revising Barristers
c. 68. (Dublin) Act, 1857.
